1. Soviet units from Bessarabia are reportedly moving toward Austria and Hungary. Parts of the units in the Sixth Army (sic) are in Constanta, including an infantry division, and are moving to Bulgaria via Ruse. On 4 July, however, the Headquarters of the Sixth Army were still in Constanta. Earlier, on 1 July, armored forces were being transported by rail to an unknown destination. Troops south of Bucharest are moving toward the Yugoslav border. A mixed Soviet air regiment landed at the Mamai airfield.
2. It is reported that the families of Soviet officers previously living in Constanta have already left, presumably for the Soviet Union, and that political prisoners are being transferred to the interior of Rumania.
